Miscellaneous Professional Liability

Celerity Risk's Miscellaneous Professional Liability ("MPL") Program offers broad professional liability coverage that's designed to protect a wide range of professionals from the unique risks associated with their services. Our coverage safeguards against claims of errors & omissions, misrepresentation, breach of contract, negligence, and failure to deliver professional services as promised.

We address exposures faced by consultants, marketing firms, staffing agencies, property managers, event planners, and many other service-based businesses, ensuring protection from financial loss due to lawsuits, regulatory actions, or client disputes. With a nationwide appetite and flexible underwriting approach, we deliver tailored solutions backed by industry expertise, responsive service, and dedicated claims handling, giving professionals the confidence to focus on their business.
