

Celerity Risk's Media Program offers specialized professional liability coverage designed to protect those in the traditional media, film and production, and music industries. With the unique risks associated with publishing, broadcasting, and digital content, our coverage safeguards against defamation, copyright and trademark infringement, invasion of privacy, and misappropriation of ideas—critical exposures in today's fast-paced media landscape.

We also address risks related to social media engagement and evolving intellectual property laws, offering insurance solutions tailored to meet the demands of an era of rapid technological and regulatory change. Our commitment to responsive underwriting and expert claims handling provides well-rounded protection to help safeguard creative professionals from financial and reputational harm.
